MEMORIAL FOR BOURBON COUNTY SOLDIERS ASSURED

By the action of the people of Bourbon county in their subscriptions at the mass meeting held at the Grand Opera House Sunday afternoon, it is now an assured fact that the memory of Bourbon county's soldier dead in the late world-war will be perpetuated in a fitting memorial.

An audience that completely filled the structure was present when the proceedings began at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting was presided over by Mr. James M. Caldwell, Chairman for the county, who, in a few well-chosen words, announced the object of the meeting. Community Chorus, under the direction of Mr. A. L. Boatright, sang "America," the audience joining in the refrain. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church, followed by the rendition of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by the Community Chorus.

Chairman Caldwell introduced Judge Denis Dundon, who, in a brief address, eulogized the soldier and sailor boys of the county. Miss Mary Dan Harbison and her brother, Capt. Dan Harbison, rendered a duet, "Tenting On The Old Camp Ground," and in response to hearty applause, rendered "My Old Kentucky Home." Both have splendid voices and are great favorites with the people of Paris.

The principal speaker of the evening, Hon. Edward O'Hara, of Williamson, was then introduced to the audience by Chairman Caldwell. Mr. O'Hara delivered one of the most convincing and eloquent addresses any Paris audience ever heard. He held the undivided attention of the audience to the very last minute. His address was frequently interrupted by continued applause, as he told in a masterly way of the sacrifices made by the American boys in the war.

At the close of Mr. O'Hara's address the work of raising the funds for the memorial was begun under the auspices of Mr. John T. Collins, who was introduced to the big audience by Chairman Caldwell as "the Billy Sunday of Bourbon county." In compliance with a request made by Mr. Collins, Miss Harbison and Capt. Harbison repeated the singing of "Tenting On The Old Camp

BEWARE THE DOG! NO LICENSE, NO DOG.

For failure to secure the required license and license tags for their dogs, Judge Batterton, in the County Court, Friday, assessed fines of $10 and costs against Charles Feedick and Hugh Victor, of Millersburg, and Geo. Christopher, residing on the Kalape Farm, near Paris.

Five dogs, minus their license tags, were picked up on the streets Friday by Sheriff W. G. McClintock and Deputy Sheriff R. M. Gilkey and placed in the dog pound. Six dogs in Millersburg were sent to the slaughter house.

Kentucky has collected something like $250,000 from the dog tax during the present year, 179,128 dogs having been listed for taxation. Taxes on dogs will run to at least $150,000 and the school fund of the State will get a neat part of this sum.

In the County Court, Saturday, John Berry, Eliza Baker, Charlie Smoot and George McDonald were each fined $10 and costs by County Judge George Batterton for failure to take out the required license on dogs purporting to be owned by them. During the day several dogs without the necessary tags were picked up by the officers and sent to the pound.

Ground." Mr. Collins declaring that it ought to open the purses and hearts of the audience if anything in the world would.

Contributions began with the sum of $500 and went on down the line as low as one dollar, the amounts being called off faster than the tellers could keep track of them. It reminded many in the audience of the big Red Cross drive at the court house.

Altogether 280 subscriptions were made, totalling about $8,500. Millersburg and other sections of the county not being heard from. It is practically assured that the whole amount, $10,000, is now in sight.

It was stated yesterday that the committee had about decided on the form of memorial and that a monument of artistic design and proportions, erected in the court house yard, will become the testimonial of Bourbon county's regard for the boys who have given up their lives for their country.

MARCH TERM OF BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT CONVENES.

The March term of the Bourbon Circuit Court convened yesterday with Judge R. L. Stout on the bench and the Commonwealth represented by Victor K. Bradley, of Georgetown, and D. D. Cline, County Attorney of Bourbon. In delivering his charge to the Grand Jury Judge Stout said that, after consultation with the officials he had learned that conditions in this county were better than at any time within the past twelve months. "This," he said, "should be gratifying news to the grand jury and to all citizens. It is a valuable asset to any county, in these times of fluctuation of values of land, when fabulous prices are being paid for real estate, to have it said that respect for law is predominant. What person would be willing to pay such high prices for land unless he was guaranteed that he was going into a law-abiding community?"

Of course there are in Bourbon county, as in all other counties of the State a certain element who have small regard for the law. These comprise various offenses, such as carrying concealed weapons. In his experience on the bench in this county he had only known of one case of murder where the offending party was not guilty of carrying a concealed weapon. The common gambler should also receive the closest attention of the Grand Jury. He defined a common gambler as one who made it a business of gambling to the exclusion of other honorable means of making a living. The crimes of murder, robbery, arson, etc., he said should of themselves demand the attention of the jury. Vagrancy should also be inquired into. Regardless of what conditions the vagrant's non-occupation leads to, they will tend to finally make him dishonest.

Judge Stout directed the jury to give their attention first to those cases in jail unable to give bond. If they were innocent they should be released and if the circumstances did not justify that they should be given the advantage of an early trial.

The case of the Commonwealth against John Henry Harp, charged with murder, was set for trial on the eighth day of the term, which is Tuesday, March 18. The motion and grounds for new trial in the case of Oscar Johnson, who was given the death sentence at a previous term of the court, is set for hearing to-day. Judge Stout announcing that it must be disposed of this week.

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury: William Wornall (foreman), Samuel Harding, May Goff, R. H. Ferguson, Joseph Jacoby, H. B. Purdy, A. S. Ball, Fred Park, E. J. Burris, Edward Tucker, James Caldwell, Joseph Booth.

Another case that will likely come up for trial at this term of Court is the suit of the Peoples-Deposit Bank and Trust Company as administrators of the estate of Mrs. Henry C. Curtis against the Paris Gas & Electric Co. and the Paris Home Telephone Company for damages in the sum of $15,000, and as guardian for Henry Curtis, Jr., for damages in the sum of $7,000. Mrs. Curtis met her death some time ago by taking hold of an iron staple driven in a telephone pole opposite her home on Stoner avenue, and which, it is alleged, was charged with a high voltage as the result of crossed wires belonging to the defendant companies. The boy also sustained burns from the same cause, it is alleged.

ATTRACTIONS AT LEXINGTON OPERA HOUSE.

Theatre-goers will find a splendid line of attractions for the week at the Lexington Opera House. Beginning yesterday with the New York musical comedy success, "Oh, Lady, Lady," the same attraction to-night; Wednesday and Thursday, the laughable farce frolic, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," and on Saturday matinee and night, the favorite and refreshing comedy, "Daddy Long Legs."

Good attractions like these can always be depended upon to draw a large patronage from Bourbon county.

J. O. U. A. M. TO INITIATE

The crack team of Bourbon Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will initiate a class of eighteen candidates at the meeting to be held at their lodge room to-night, Tuesday, March 11. All the members are requested to be present, as there will be something doing.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Ensign Harold Harris, of the U. S. Navy, is in Paris as a guest of his mother, Mrs. Jessie H. Harris. Ensign Harris has just returned to America from France on a furlough. He was in the navy in English and French waters almost from the entrance of this country in the world-war.

The boys are coming back home! Among the recent arrivals are Corp. Paul Brannon, glasses, genial smile and all; Frank Higgins, handsome as ever and heavier by twenty pounds, Harry Borlow, tall, erect, heavier, and full of interesting stories of experiences overseas; Y. L. Harrison, happy and full of good cheer, with thirty pounds of added weight; Robt. Link, Jr., bright-eyed and rosy-cheeked, a real soldier; Allie Detwiler, of North Middletown, a representative soldier.

Owen Gibson, formerly a member of Uncle Sam's carrier force at the local postoffice, and who is now in France with the American Expeditionary Forces, sent an interesting souvenir to Mr. John Kriener, of this city, in the shape of a trench light. The light is a brass affair, shaped like a watch. On one side is a bas relief portrait of Marshal Foch and on the other the arms of the French republic. The light very much resembles the ordinary cigarette lighter, and has much of the same action, the alcohol in the little receiver being ignited by an emery wheel and flint attachment.

Kimbrough Duvall arrived in Paris Friday from Camp Dix, in New Jersey, on a thirty-days' furlough visit to his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George Duvall, on Lilleston avenue. "Kim" has been promoted to the position of Company Clerk in his regiment, the Fiftieth, stationed at Camp Dix, and is also in charge of the regimental canteen, which nets him a handsome revenue. He has re-enlisted for two years and will return to Uncle Sam's service about April 15. Kim says Uncle Sam is the best employer he ever worked for, and that he has absolutely no complaint to make.

The Good Samaritan Base Hospital Unit No. 40, composed of Kentucky men and women, has been "ordered home. It will leave Salisbury Court, England, at once for the United States. Maj. David Barrow, commander of the organization, notified his son, Dr. Woolfolk Barrow, of Lexington, that orders had been received to make immediate disposition of all patients, turn in all equipment and get ready to start home. Several members of the unit arrived this week.

Several Bourbon county boys and Red Cross nurses are members of this unit. Relatives in this city were advised several days ago of the issuance of moving orders for the members of the unit.

Mrs. J. W. McIlvaine, of this city, received a cablegram from her grandson, Jack McIlvaine, in France, announcing the death in a French base hospital, of his brother, Miller (Buddie) McIlvaine, formerly of this city. The cablegram gave no particulars other than that young McIlvaine died last Friday in the hospital from the effects of wounds. He was a member of the American Expeditionary Forces, and participated in most of the heavy fighting in the big battles in the world war. Young McIlvaine was wounded in three places during the battle of the Argonne Woods, in October. He was a bright, amiable young fellow with a host of friends here, all of whom unite in expressions of sympathy to those from whom he has been taken.

A letter from Private Andrew Jackson Turney is always interesting because Private Andrew Jackson Turney always has something interesting to write and always writes in an interesting way. THE NEWS yesterday received the following letter from "Genial Jack."

"Over in France, Feb. 10.
Dear NEWS: This army thinks more of its men than one would give it credit for, in fact, they are so very fond of us that orders as to sailing have been changed, and it looks now if Mother Earth might change her dress into green and probably brown before we walk on the gang plank again for the homeward-bound trip."

"We leave Labiville to-day for Thilacourt, which is about four kilometers from where the fighting stopped. Our present location is on the line dividing Lorraine from France. We have been since Nov. 20 in a part of France where there was no fighting, but from the way I feel this morning, last night must have been spent on the 'Champagne front.' A third of our company has just returned from a pleasure trip of fifteen days' sojourn in the Alps mountains. The Alps are very beautiful, but I believe the mount-

TOBACCO MARKETS

The Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company sold yesterday a total of 58,030 pounds of tobacco for $16.190.78, an average of $27.72. The quality of the day's offerings was very poor, and the market showed no advance over last week's prices. Some of the crop averages follow:

Thos. Drennan, 3,225 pounds, average $41.55.

Miller & Crump, 2,950 pounds, average $32.34.

Arthur Harney, 2,950 pounds, average $30.57.

King Redmon, 4,555 pounds, average $38.12.

Brennan & Sanders, 1,9995 pounds, average $40.11.

Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson, 2,955 pounds, average $38.72.

Henry & Johnson, 3,445 pounds, average $32.85.

DRILLING IN BOURBON.

Drilling for oil will begin within a week on the farm of Wm. Meteer, near Hutchison, this county.

Sometime ago Mr. Meteer started drilling for water. One day the driller lighted his pipe while standing over the hole, and in an instant was on fire from gas which had ignited. The gas burned for several days until the well was plugged. Drilling for oil is to be carried on in the same hole.

tains of Kentucky would appeal to me more. I had not intended taking the trip, but if our orders remain unchanged, I will be there the first of March for a couple of weeks. Only wish you were along to write up (not light up) the trip.

Hope the boys are getting home on the double-quick, as home is what we yearn for. The best of luck to everyone. Tell Press Myers or his successors to move the city cleaning wagon when I get back, as two steps forward, two steps back is a dance we have all learned to do.

Please phone the folks out home and tell them I am in the very best of health and spirits and actually so dog-gone healthy that I am afraid of myself. I hope to be home very soon, and will tell you all there is to tell. THE NEWS has not been coming very regularly, but that it is not your fault, I know, because I have learned that the army postoffices will side-track newspaper mail every time. Well, the best of luck to everybody.

BOURBON COUNTY MAN KILLS WIFE'S COMPANION.

When Frank Munson, thirty-six years old, a farmer residing near Hutchison, this county, found his wife, Mrs. Emma Munson, aged thirty-three, the mother of his six children, in a room at a boarding house in Cincinnati, Sunday, with Frank Foley, also of Hutchison, he fired three shots into Foley's body, killing him instantly.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer prints the following account of the affair. Neither Munson or Foley are very well-known here. The Enquirer says:

"When Frank Munson, 36 years old, farmer, of Hutchison, Bourbon county, Ky., found his wife, Mrs. Hannah Munson, 33 years old, the mother of his six children, with Charles Foley, 24 years old, also of Hutchison, Ky., in a room of a boarding house at 721 Mellwood avenue, Winton Place, yesterday afternoon, Munson fired three bullets into Foley's body, killing him instantly.

"The shooting occurred shortly after 4 o'clock. Munson arrived in Cincinnati yesterday and went to the Winton Place address to inquire into the whereabouts of his wife. He was told by the landlady she was in a room upstairs.

"When he rapped on his wife's door Foley opened it. As Foley attempted to shut the door to bar his admission Munson drew a revolver and fired a shot through the door. He then forced his way into the room and emptied his revolver at Foley, who was cowering behind the door.

"Without a word to his wife, who shrank into a corner, Munson called to the landlady to summon the police, telling her he had killed Foley. He then calmly waited in his wife's room until police of the Tenth District arrived and took him into custody. He will be charged with murder this morning, police say. Mrs. Munson was also arrested and is being held at the Place of Detention on suspicion.

"According to Munson's story he had no intention of killing Foley when he went to the house. He said Foley's action in trying to bar him from the room enraged him. However, he declared he believed he was justified in what he had done, as this was the second time Foley had persuaded his wife to leave him and their six small children.

"Foley, according to Munson, formerly was a boarder in his home at Hutchison. A year ago, he said, Foley and Mrs. Munson eloped, and after a long search they were located in the boarding house at which they were found yesterday. On that occasion, he said, he persuaded his wife to return to him, and for the sake of their children, he said, he forgave her. She again left with Foley last September, he said."

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

It's Up to You.

We were wandering about the old town last Tuesday afternoon and we came across a lot of tumbledown shacks, worthless outbuildings and rickety fences. As we stopped in front of some dear old homesteads, now going to decay, we thought if they only could talk, how they would cry out for a new coat of paint and the repairs so sadly needed. How they would tell of the days when the young wife came with the new householder and put the bulbs and shrubs out and planned for a home beautiful.

These poor old wrecks of buildings were put up for a specific purpose, that was to make better living, but in the years of decay and death, things have changed and they are left with worn surfaces and shaggy remains of the one-time trim appearance.

Oh, how changed Paris would look if we could refurbish this spring from end to end. It would be so easy if everyone of us would do his bit. We could make Paris so tidy and pleasing in appearance that we would feel that we had moved to a Spotless Town, indeed. Tear away the old wrecks of buildings that are not used for any purpose any more except to make hideous the surrounding space, pile the fit boards neatly away for future use and then whitewash the fences and buildings that are left standing. Then paint the home and plant shrubs and flowers in the doorway. This can not be done by proclamation. It is no use to call a mass meeting to declare a general clean-up day. The only way to accomplish this wonderful transformation is for each family to do it on their own premises. Will you do your bit for the old home town this spring? Some of us will. Let us all be good citizens and let our slogan be, "Paris, busy and clean."

Did America Win the War?

What must be the thoughts of our soldiers and sailors when they return from the din of fighting to hear the hubbub in Congress about "American failures in the war?" These men who drove the Huns from France and Belgium; who saw the German military machine wrecked and shattered; who held the collapse of the greatest military power in history; who marched into Metz and Coblenz, regarded as impregnable strongholds—what must they think when they hear America's efforts and their own endeavors described by Senators and Representatives as failures?

Did America win the war? Ask the Germans—they appear to be experiencing some sensations of defeat. Was there a breakdown of the American Army? Put the question to the French and the English, who know what reverses and handicaps really are. Did alleged American shortcomings endanger the success of the Allied arms? Read the terms of the armistice. Did alleged American mismanagement cause an American retreat? Ask a soldier or sailor—and then run before you get the answer.

About Free Publicity.

When a newspaper gives you a lot of free advertising in order to boom some concert or church entertainment which you are interested in, keep track of the number of lines that are printed week by week, and multiply that number by the regular advertising rates of the paper. Compare the results with the actual money value of any favor that you can get from any other business concern. Then take into consideration the fact that advertising and circulation are the only two things that a newspaper has to sell, and in these days of higher prices, how much do you think they ought to give away for nothing?

Of the fifteen lines comprising the system of Chinese government railways, only one was built by the Chinese themselves.

FORERUNNER OF THE BICYCLE

Velocipede Was Considered a Swift Moving Vehicle When First Introduced Into This Country.

The velocipede made its appearance in Washington 50 years ago, much having been heard of this new device, which had developed a veritable fever in France. In an article in the Washington Star of November 20, 1868, it was noted that the use of this vehicle had been "brought to such perfection that it is claimed 20 miles an hour has been made with it." The Star said:

"Lately the velocipede has been introduced in this country, and our young Americans, who at one time had the boxing mania, are now going strong on the velocipede, and it will doubtless have its run all over the country. Graham, the carriage dealer on D street between 8th and 9th, has just imported a first-class velocipede, and it is an object of great attraction at his establishment. It is a smart, stylish-looking affair, but very simple in its working. It can be run most rapidly with two wheels, but it is convertible to a three-wheeler. The working of it brings in play most of the muscles of the body, and it is said to be very healthful. From the facility with which it is steered or turned, it can be used on any sidewalk or gravel walk. The gravel walks of the Smithsonian would be just the thing for velocipedes. The style of velocipede to be seen at Graham's is the latest French style, introduced in this country by the Hanlon brothers, gymnasts."

TENNYSON NOT IDEAL HOST

Great Artist Who Was to Paint Portrait of Laureate Got Some What Dubious Reception.

Here is a tale of Tennyson, told by Sir Hubert von Herkomer, R. A., who once went to Freshwater for the purpose of getting sittings for a portrait of the laureate:

"Getting to the station rather late, I left my things there, not knowing what sort of reception I might get. After I had been received by Mr. Hallam Tennyson, the present Lord Tennyson, old Tennyson came shuffling in—he had a shuffling way of walking because he was near-sighted—and shook hands with me.

"I hate your coming," he said; "I cannot abide sitting."

"That did not seem very promising. However, after he had conversed for some time he said:

"Where are your things?"

"I explained, and thereupon he got up, rang the bell, and told a servant to fetch my luggage.

"You had better put up here," he said.

"I felt I was getting along. At eleven o'clock I went to my room, still wondering whether I would succeed in my mission or not. Shortly afterward there came a rap at the door and I said, 'Come in,' turned around and saw Tennyson standing in the door. He said:

"I believe you are honest. Good night!" and thereupon departed.

"It was his way of making amends for the rather dubious way in which he had first met me."

The Swallow's Back.

An Indian legend tells us that when men first came on earth they had no fire. The Great Spirit taught them how to do many things; he taught them how to get food from the forest, fish from the waters and corn and beans from the earth, but fire they themselves must learn to make.

Even with all the gifts they had showered upon them they were not happy, but kept thinking all the time of the one thing which they still wanted. Instead of enjoying the many gifts which were already theirs. All fire was then in the sun, and they could think of no way to get it. Men could not reach it in any way, and no bird cared to go after it.

Finally the swallows, who could fly more swiftly than any of the other birds, offered to go to the sun so far away and bring this gift to men. The swallow's back is still black, but no one ever tried to get fire from the sun again that way. Long years afterward men learned how to make fire by rubbing sticks together.

Do Away With Mental Lapses.

There's little difference between the pupil that sits gazing blankly out of the window and the man who sits at the desk conscious of much to do but unable to start things. A truant mind is sure to embarrass any one who permits mental lapses. What right have you to be dreaming of the girl you might have married when you have tied up to another? What's the use of fussing about the order you lost yesterday? Nothing you can do today can redeem it. The only thing possible is to take your medicine like a man and fortify yourself with every thing needed to land the next one. Forget the past and make the present count. After all you are living today and have hope only for tomorrow.

Think in terms of making the most of what you have and the result will be entered on the credit side of the ledger.

Merely Wanted the Materials.

"So you married my daughter thinking I'd pave the way for you in business? Is that it?"

"Well—er—not exactly. I'd do the paving, but I thought you might furnish the rocks."—Boston Evening Transcript.

TAFT HOPES SENATE WILL APPROVE LEAGUE PLANS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—The following is from the pen of former President Wm. Howard Taft:

"The Senate resolution, moved by Senator Lodge and supported by 37 Senators, has been hailed as an indication that the covenant of Paris is not to be ratified.

"It perhaps may bear this construction, though its declarations do not necessarily imply this. It declares that the sense of the Senate is against the acceptance of the present covenant.

"It should be borne in mind that the present covenant merely is a report from a committee of the conference, signed by the representatives of the 14 nations who are dictating the present peace to Germany.

"It now comes up in the conference for discussion, revision and adoption. Undoubtedly the covenant needs revision. It is not symmetrically arranged, its meaning has to be dug out and the language is ponderous and in diplomatic patois.

"The form of the covenant is explained by the fact that it is a compromise. France has been struggling for a league which should have more teeth in it, should be a more complete organization, with an international police, completely formed and constantly on duty, under order of a league commander, to meet any emergency involving the action of the league.

"So far as the United States is concerned it could not furnish forces for an army of this kind, to be ordered by a league official into war without a formal declaration of war in each case by our Congress, and its authority to use the forces for that purpose.

"We may assume that there was the same difficulty with other nations. Nor is the existence of such a police force necessary. France had in mind an attack by Germany upon her, like that made in the war just ending.

"Not only did France not succeed, in getting the international police force, but she did not succeed in securing a fixed and definite obligation on the part of the nations of the league to furnish military forces to protect the covenants of the league.

"The only clear positive obligation of the members of the league is to levy a boycott on the outlaw nations.

"The Executive Council recommends the amount of military force each nation should furnish, but it seems to be left to the nation to allow its own judgment in this regard, and not to declare war at all, it seems the boycott all that it ought to do under the circumstances. The part of the covenant might be clarified.

"The covenant also should be made more definite as to when its obligations may define as to when its obligations may be terminated. It should be made more definite by a doctrine.

"There are other ambiguous phrases. One of these, for instance, is in respect to the Executive Council. Will it need a unanimous vote, or will a majority vote be sufficient where here is no specification?

The fact that the Senators say it is not acceptable is no indication that it is not vote against it when properly revised.

"The view of the Senators that each should first be negotiated, and then the question of the League of Nations should be taken up in a more leisurely way, cannot control Mr. Wilson. He believes, as many do who know the European situation, that the league is an essential to the treaty in order to make the treaty practical and effective.

"Almost the first vote of the conference was that the league should be an integral part of the treaty. We may therefore anticipate that it will be, and it ought to be.

"Mr. Wilson will therefore return with the signed treaty having the covenant in it, and with its threads running through all the articles of the treaty. It will thus be difficult by amendment to strike out the covenant and leave anything of the treaty of peace.

"If, however, the Senate insists on amending the treaty by striking out the covenant, it will indefinitely postpone peace, the immediate consummation of which it now declares to be of the highest importance.

"When Mr. Wilson sends the treaty to the Senate with the covenant in it, therefore the situation will be very different from what it is now. The covenant probably will be changed to meet many of the reasonable objections that have been made.

"The European countries are doubtless quite willing to consent to them. They have a deep interest in securing for the league the prestige and power of the United States, as well as the advantage of its disinterestedness and typical democracy. They are anxious to secure the assistance of the United States, in order to maintain peace in Europe.

"We may be sure they are entirely willing to leave to the United States and other American nations the policing of the Western Hemisphere until such time as an American power shall seek the assistance of European Powers to meet emergencies on this side of the ocean.

"The friends of the league are not discouraged over the question of its ultimate ratification. They sincerely hope and believe that with the changed relations of the Senate to the treaty, and with the changes in the covenant, a sufficient number of Senators may be secured to take this great step forward toward world peace."

ARMY HOSPITAL AT WEST BADEN TO BE ABANDONED.

Army General Hospital No. 39, at Long Beach, L. I., N. Y., and General Hospital No. 35, at West Baden, Ind., are to be abandoned. Surgeon General Ireland announced that the Long Beach institution would be cleared of patients and personnel by March 15 and that No. 35 would be abandoned at the expiration of the present lease, June 30.

PUBLIC SALE

North Middletown Residence!

Having decided to move to Paris to reside permanently, I will sell at public auction, on the premises in North Middletown, on:

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1919, beginning at 10 o'clock, my desirable home. Also, a 5-acre tract of land and a parcel of land opposite from H. S. Caywood's new home, the last two named tracts facing on College Street. Descriptions follow below:

No. 1—My substantial two-story frame residence located on Main street, containing 6 rooms, 2 halls, pantry, etc. The lot has thereon a good well, necessary outbuildings, with yard and garden. Possession will be given about May 1, 1919.

No. 2—The beautiful building lot on College Street, opposite the handsome home of H. S. Caywood and others, and adjoining the property of J. C. Bryan and L. R. Henry. This lot has thereon a storage shed under rental to R. M. Gilkey until January 1, 1920, the said rental money to go to purchaser from sale day.

This lot will be offered in two equal tracts and then as a whole. The tracts separately will each have a frontage on College Street of about 77 feet. Possessor of the lot, less the shed mentioned above will be given on sale day.

No. 3—Tract of about 5 acres of land facing on College Street, opposite from K. C. & B. College, and adjoining the property of W. A. Thomason and J. C. Bryan. This is a beautiful building site and will be first offered in three parcels and then as a whole, the best bid or bids to be accepted, each having ample frontage on College Street, and divided as follows:

The first tract adjoins W. A. Thomason and contains about 2 acres of land, good stock barn, water, etc.

To See Is to Believe.

"If I come in your yard will your dog bite me?" asked Weary Willie. "I'm not certain, mister," replied the woman of the house, "but the man who sold him to us says that he'll chase a tramp 10 miles without stopping. But I'm not going to believe it till I see it done."—People's Home Journal.

Somebody is complaining of the size of the war macaroni. We have always preferred the 44-calibre kind to the sort they call wermicelli, as Samivel Weller would say.

CUT YOUR SHOE BILLS

"Heretofore, soles never lasted me more than three months, because my work keeps me walking constantly on cement. But I have worn a pair of Neolin Soles now for more than three months, and judging from their present condition, they will last three times as long." So says G. L. Kerr, manager of an automobile organization in Geneva, N. Y.

This extra wear given by Neolin Soles not only makes the shoes sold with them cheaper by the year than other shoes, but the price you pay in the first place is sometimes less than for shoes of only ordinary wear.

You can get Neolin-soled shoes in many styles for every member of the family. Try these long-wearing, comfortable and waterproof soles on your worn shoes too. All good repair shops have them. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., of Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

WHOLE FAMILY
TAKES MERITONE

Man So Pleased With It He Gets Meritone For Wife and Children

Ed. Evans, a well-known and prosperous farmer of Fayette county, near Lexington, Ky., tried Meritone and it did him so much good that he went back to the drug store and got supply for the whole family—wife, children and all.

On his return to the drug store he said:

"I'm delighted with this Meritone. I was weak and felt tired out all the time. In fact, I had influenza and never did get over it right. I couldn't eat or sleep right. Why, the sight of food sometimes turned me against it. At night I'd just toss and roll and couldn't get my rest."

"I eat and sleep fine and feel good since taking Meritone. I got to bed at 7 or 8 o'clock at night and get right to sleep and sleep straight through to morning. Then, when I get up, I've got the appetite for a big breakfast."

"Yes, sir, I'm delighted with Meritone and I want some more for my wife and children."

Thousands of people in many States are taking Meritone and praise it highly. Meritone is best for those ills most common—for ailing conditions of the stomach, liver or kidneys, catarrh, rheumatism and the like.

Meritone is sold exclusively in Paris by G. S. Varden & Son.

KENTUCKY WAR WORKERS PRESENTED WITH MEDALS

The presentation of three patriotic medals to Edward L. Hines, president of the Kentucky Council of Defense; Frederick M. Sackett, Kentucky Federal Food Administrator, and Mrs. Wm. D. Cochran, in memory of the patriotic service of her late husband, featured the session of the State Conference on State Problems, held in Lexington at the University of Kentucky under the auspices of the Kentucky Council of Defense.

With the medal to Mrs. Cochran was presented a memorial resolution passed by the Council praising his work as Chairman of the Committee on Health and Education and declaring that he gave his life for his country.

Mr. Cochran died suddenly several weeks ago in Cincinnati while returning to his home in Maysville.

The three medals were presented by Capt. Charles F. Huhlein, of Louisville, on behalf of the Kentucky Committee of the National Institute of Social Sciences, which includes Mrs. Geo. C. Avery, chairman; Mrs. James B. Speed, of Louisville; Mrs. T. Hoyt Gamble and Capt. Huhlein.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local treatment, pronounced incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One hundred dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

SURELY IS SOME WOMAN!

Miss Mary Scott Gayle, 60 years old, has never needed the services of a physician, nor had toothache. Recently, she fell down the stairs, and it was thought she had fractured her shoulder. To the amazement of the family, her shoulder was wrenched back in place, and she suffered no ill effects, returning at once to her household duties.

FORGOT WHAT HE NEEDED.

From the Republican, Mt. Gilead, Ohio: "The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: 'Now I know! What is it you are looking for?' we inquired. 'My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except Chamberlain's. I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.' The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers."

FARMERS ASK APPOINTMENT OF COUNTY AGENT.

At a mass-meeting of farmers of Bourbon county, held at the court house, plans were fully discussed for securing the appointment of a county agent for Bourbon county. The meeting was well-attended, and was presided over by Hon. Matt S. Cohen, Commissioner of Agriculture for Kentucky. J. Morgan Hughes, of Bowling Green, Extension Agent of the College of Agriculture, was also present, and delivered an interesting address.

In his address Mr. Hughes stated that sixty-two counties in the State had County Agents and demonstrators, and that in ever instance they had proven to be of great advantage to the farmers and the housewives. He said that although Bourbon county had a wealth of soil fertility in some sections and in some fields, there were other localities that needed a "soil doctor." He said that more silos were needed in the county and that with the proper interest manifested the county could become a great alfalfa and sweet clover producer, both of which, he stated, are good soil builders. He told the farmers that knowledge of a balanced ration to be fed to sheep, hogs and cattle was little known and that great improvement could be had through such agencies.

Bourbon county, with all its wealth, he said, could grow in knowledge of the farm and soil fertility, crop rotation, care of livestock and the diversity of the field crops and could thereby save thousands of dollars now going to waste.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT!

STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Hair Stops Falling Out and Gets Thick, Wavy, Strong and Beautiful.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine" hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what pleases you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowiton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter for a few cents.

IRON IN UKRAINA.

Within the boundaries of Ukraine are found the principal available deposits of iron ore in Russia. The development of the iron ore deposits of the Krivoi Rog district has been mainly responsible for the rapid growth of the Russian iron and steel industry, which now depends to an extent of about 70 per cent on the iron ore in the southern part of the country.

BOURBON COUNTY GRADUATES AT UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY.

Eighty-six students of the University of Kentucky are candidates for diplomas in June, according to an unofficial list given out by the registrar's office.

Included in this list are several who have just returned to their studies from military service. It is probable that several other students whose names are not contained in the list may graduate and that a few new candidates may fail to graduate. The official list of graduates cannot be given out until the final examinations at the end of the second semester have been given.

Among those who will receive their diplomas are the following from Bourbon county: College of Engineering—J. Stuart Wallingford, C. Landen Templin; Arts and Science—Miss Marie Collins, North Middletown, Mr. John Thornton Connell, Paris, Mr. Eli Baer Friedman, Paris; Home Economics—Miss Mildred Collins, North Middletown.

WILL NOT BE CANDIDATES FOR RENOMINATION.

For the benefit of possible applicants for positions in the Paris Fire Department, Mr. J. J. Veatch, Chairman of the Fire and Hose Committee of the Paris City Council, asks THE NEWS to give publicity to the fact that Ulman Lancaster, Edward Myers and George Docknebod, who resigned their positions in the department some time ago, will not be candidates for the places again, under any circumstances.

Several intending applicants for the positions had been holding back under the impression that Messrs. Lancaster, Docknebod and Myers would go back in the department again, but such is not the case, and the field will be an open one, with the best men winning out.

OIL EXCHANGE ANNOUNCES
OPENING.

To accommodate the large amount of trading in Kentucky oil stocks, the Blue Grass Oil Exchange will open an office in this city Saturday, March 15. The room at 418 Main street, next door to the Bourbon Garage, has been leased for the purpose and preparations are being made to insure the opening on next Saturday. Open call sessions will be held every Wednesday and Saturday evenings at 7:30.

The purpose of the Exchange is to buy and sell for its clients on commission all Kentucky oil securities. The directors of the new corporation are Geo. W. Stuart, John M. Stuart and O. T. Hinton.

SIGNS OF SPRING.

Spring is surely on the way. Signs are abundant. The shop windows are giving evidences of the near approach of mistress Spring. Light, airy fabrics, such as the dear girls affect through the spring and summer, all being shown in the windows, while garden seeds, garden implements and other impedimenta that clog up the house in the gardening season, are making their appearance. Boys spinning tops and playing marbles in the streets constitute another important forerunner of the advent of Spring. Oh, yes, Spring is on the way—but hold on to your heavy clothes just a little longer!

CENTENARY CAMPAIGN SPEAKER WILL ADDRESS MEETING

In connection with the Centenary Movement of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Mrs. H. H. Hargrove, Secretary of the Woman's Work for the Centenary, is now making a series of addresses in various Southern and Western States. Mrs. Hargrove will speak before the annual meetings of the Women's Missionary Societies of the conferences in the States of Illinois, Oklahoma, Virginia and Mississippi.

These meetings are now in progress and will continue for several weeks longer, during which time the efficient Secretary of the Woman's Work of the Centenary will be one of the chief speakers on the programs. Mrs. Hargrove is a woman of force and great earnestness. She believes in the Centenary herself and her enthusiasm is contagious. She stated to a representative of this paper recently that she was tremendously proud of the way Methodist women were lining up with the Methodist men to see that the financial campaign of the Centenary was a success.

The new directory for Paris of the Home Telephone Co., is just off the press from THE NEWS job rooms, and is, as usual, with every class of work turned out here, a thing of typographical excellence. The books were delivered to Manager Veatch yesterday, and will be placed among the patrons of the city and county exchanges at once. The book includes a complete directory and numerical list for the Paris, Millersburg, Little Rock, North Middletown and Shawhan exchanges. To use a homely phrase, "It's all right here, and it's all right all the way through."

AMONG THE "TRAVELEERS"

The Lexington Herald of Sunday has the following notes of interest in its "United Commercial Travelers" column regarding Paris people:

"Ben 'Uneeda' Downey and Harry Werner made an auto trip through Casey county the past week and the hard luck part was that they got stuck in the middle of Green River. We hope that there will be no serious after effects from their wading out of the river. A traveling man has all sorts of experiences. BASKET BALL GAMES.

The Lexington Y. M. C. A. Midgets basketball team defeated the Paris Public School Midget team in the second game of their series at the Lexington Y. M. C. A., Friday night by a score of 15 to 11. White, of the Paris squad, got seven points in the run-in.

The Lexington High School five defeated the Paris High School team in a fast game on the Lexington floor Friday night by the score of 23 to 17. The feature of the game was a toss made by Roberts, of the Paris team, from the other end of the field into the Paris goal without touching the rim. Paris lined up as follows: Robert and O'Neal, forwards; Rice, center; Dundon and Tucker, guards. The game was refereed by Coach Andy Gill, of the University of Kentucky.

The Paris Girls' High School team won the State championship Friday night when they defeated the Lexington High School team on the Lexington floor by a score of 24 to 22. The feature of the game was the playing of Miss Ruby Elder, for Paris, she getting six field goals to her credit. Miss Potter, of the Lexington team, played the best defensive. The Paris girls' team have been defeated once, that being when they were taken into camp at Maysville early in the season by the Maysville team.

RELIGIOUS.

The Training School sessions at the Baptist church are growing in interest and numbers at each session. Sunday night Secretary Gardner, State Secretary of B. Y. P. U. work in Texas, spoke to a large audience on the subject of "Trained Church Members." He will speak Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 8:30 in the church auditorium. Secretary J. R. Black, State Secretary of Sunday School work in Kentucky, spoke last night on the subject, "Seven Symptoms of Sunday School Success." He will speak again Wednesday evening on the subject, "How to Make a Sunday School Go." The public is cordially invited to attend these services at 8:30, held in the church auditorium. Stereopticon pictures will be shown each night.

The classes begin at 5:45 each afternoon, and will study methods of Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. work.

A lunch will be served free to all who attend these classes.

The Sunday School and Young Peoples' Society workers of the various churches are invited to attend these classes.

The program each day is as follows:

4:30 to 5:30—Junior B. Y. P. U. workers' meeting.

5:45 to 6:00—Devotional period.

6:00 to 7:00—Classes on Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. methods.

7:00 to 7:30—Lunch.

7:30 to 8:30—Classes in Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. methods.

8:30 to 9:00—Popular address.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH BANQUET

A banquet will be given in the parlors of the Christian church in this city next Friday night, March 14. Covers will be laid for two hundred, including the officers and teachers of the school, members of the Women's and Men's Bible Classes and those of the classes of Mrs. Funk and Mr. A. L. Boatright. An elaborate menu will be served, and several noted church workers will respond to appropriate toasts. The occasion promises to be one of great pleasure to all who attend.

ANNUAL REPORT OF STATE Y. M. C. A.

Plain talk is to be the order of the day in regard to criticisms of the overseas work of the Y. M. C. A. at the annual banquet of the Kentucky State Y. M. C. A., at the Seelbach Hotel auditorium, in Louisville, on the night of Thursday, March 13. Urgent pleas are being sent out all over the State for a large attendance in order that workers in the Association may know how to meet the criticisms of the war work. It is expected that fully 500 will sit down to the banquet and for the first time in the history of the State Association, the ladies will be invited.

Dr. E. Y. Mullins, President of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, of Louisville, who has been in charge of the religious work carried on by the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Taylor for the past year and a half, has been making an investigation of reports of the "Y" work in France by interviewing returned soldiers at the camp. In addition to the report which Dr. Mullins will make, an officer of the regular army and a returned soldier who have seen overseas service, will tell of conditions as they saw them abroad.

The State work will be presented by State Secretary P. C. Dix, who will outline the proposed new State-wide program, considered by far the most progressing step taken by any State Y. M. C. A. in this country, and which has aroused nation-wide interest. Associate State Secretary C. A. Tevebaugh will tell of the work in the State during the past year.

On Friday, March 14, the annual State meeting will be held at the Central Association building, corner Third and Broadway. All associations in the State are entitled to from two to twenty delegates, based upon membership. Annual reports will be given and the new State plan will be up for adoption. Members of the State Managing Board will be chosen to succeed the following whose terms expire: L. K. Webb, J. C. Mahon, Geo. L. Burton, F. H. Goodridge, Dr. R. L. Ireland and John W. Price, all of Louisville; Dr. C. B. VanArsdale, Harrodsburg; B. Y. Willis, Nicholasville; Douglas Graham, Pembroke; John S. VanWinkle, Danville; Prof. B. T. Spencer, Winchester; Prof. L. Hill, Georgetown; J. H. Letcher, Henderson, and White L. Moss, Pineville.

A CHILD'S TONGUE SHOWS IF LIVER OR BOWELS ARE ACTIVE
If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Give Fruit Laxative at Once.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

DESOLATE CITY IS NISHAPUR

Home of Writer of the Rubaiyat One of the Most Forbidding Spots on Earth.

The isolated city of Nishapur, in Persia, was the home of the Persian best known of all his nation to the western world—Omar, surnamed Khayyam, or the Tentmaker, author of the Rubaiyat. The poet is still one of the great historic figures in his ancient city, but he is remembered there not as a poet or a tentmaker but as a sage, philosopher, astronomer and mathematician.

Nishapur lies in a barren upland plain, many days' overland journey from the nearest railroad point. It is encircled by mountains, most of which are low and barren. The northern range, however, rises to a considerable height, and through many months of the year its peaks are white with snow. The lower slopes have a curious reddish tint, due to iron in the earth, so that rare and delicate color combinations are formed at dawn and twilight.

Looking southward from his city, Omar saw a level, featureless plain, depressingly treeless, save for here and there a clump of slender poplars. The winter turned it to a lifeless gray; in the summer, pitiless sunlight and choking dust tormented the eyes. Only for a brief spring season did the fresh green of growing crops, the cool mists that rose after the early rains and the rainbow gleams of pale color from the mountains lend the vista a melancholy charm. Beyond the plain rose another row of low hills, and beyond that, he knew, stretched the endless desert. Each year a few weeks of joy and beauty; between mountain and desert a few miles of half kindly man-tilled earth—bits of respite that hardly broke the hostile round of nature—it is easier to understand the defiant pessimism of the Rubaiyat after seeing Nishapur. — Chicago Daily News.

GREAT POET'S LIFE UNHAPPY

John Milton, Wonderfully Gifted Intellectually, Was Yet a Man of Many Sorrows.

The great English poet, Milton, is described at the age of sixteen as "scholarly, accomplished and as handsome youth as St. Paul's had sent forth." That was at the age when, having finished preparatory school, he was ready for the university.

He was born on Broad street, London. His father was a man of education, with a decided talent for music. Milton inherited all his esthetic qualities—indeed, the rougher element at college called him "the lady," though all recognized his intellectuality. Even at that period, long before he was twenty, he contemplated writing the great "Paradise Lost," which was not finished, it happened, for forty years.

During that long lapse of time Milton had started his reputation by the twin poems, "Il Penseroso" and "L'Allegro;" had married a mere child of seventeen—an unhappy marriage, as it turned out; had written some stirring pamphlets; had almost been killed for opposing the leading politics; had remarried and been left a widower again; had lost his sight; had found the three neglected children of his first marriage not model daughters; had lived in terrible loneliness in spite of his great fame, and had been persuaded to marry a third time, for the sake of being looked after.

He was an old man when the great "Paradise Lost" appeared, which is called "one of the few monumental works of the world," and his death followed some ten years later.

How Tosti Repulsed Bors.

Many famous singers were pupils of Tosti. During one of the busiest of his mornings, when he had a long list of singing lessons to get through, a knock came at the door of his flat. His valet being ill, Tosti went to the door himself. A lady, strange to him, stood on the threshold. "Signor Tosti?" she inquired. Tosti bowed. "Oh," said the lady, "I am singing your song, 'My Memories,' at Manchester tonight, and I want you kindly to run through it with me." "Madam," answered Tosti, politely but firmly, "I fear it is impossible. I have two pupils with me now, and a third is waiting in the anteroom, while others will arrive shortly." "But you must," the lady persisted. "I am sorry—" began Tosti again, when he suddenly received a violent push backwards, and the lady walked into the studio. Tosti followed, protesting. After a long argument, which threatened every moment to become heated, the lady snapped out: "Very well, then, I shan't sing your song." "Madam," said Tosti, taking her by the hand, "I am infinitely obliged to you." The lady gave him one look and fled.

St. Brice and Football.

In November is the festival of St. Brice, who may be called the patron saint of football players, not alone because his feast day comes during the season of the gridiron game, but for quite another reason. St. Brice's day was long generally observed in England, and in the year 1002 the celebration took the form of a general massacre of the Danes. It was on that day, according to tradition, that the English game of football was invented, with the head of a Dane as the ball. St. Brice, of course, was not responsible for either the massacre of the football game, having died some six centuries before. He was a bishop of Tours and lived in the fifth century.

STATE CONFERENCE ON PROBLEMS COME TO CLOSE.

The last day of the State Conference on Kentucky Problems, in session at Lexington, was given over to subjects coming under the general heading, "Community Organization."

Mat S. Cohen, State Commissioner of Agriculture, presided at the morning session, while President Frank L. McVey, of the University of Kentucky, presided at the afternoon session.

Dr. L. L. Lumsden, of the United States Public Health Service, spoke on Rural Sanitation. He said that 38 per cent. of the men called for military service were unfit physically and made so by preventable diseases.

Dr. Arthur T. McCormick, State Health Officer for Kentucky and late Chief Health Officer for the Panama Canal Zone, said that more than half of the men found unfit for military service are as worthless and useless as citizens as they would have been as soldiers.

Dr. A. J. Gantvoort, of Cincinnati, discussed the "Choral Society and Community Singing" as an important element in community organization.

"I have suffered for the last two winters with that terrible disease, LaGrippe. Having often heard of the great value of Peruna I decided to try it. I have only used four bottles and I do not now have any bad effects from the Grippe, as it has just about entirely disappeared, and my general health is good. I am satisfied that Peruna is a wonderful remedy, and I do most heartily endorse and recommend it for LaGrippe."

KENTUCKY HIGH SCHOOLS TO HOLD DEBATES.

Plans for a series of debates for the High Schools of Kentucky to be held under the supervision of the department of English, University of Kentucky, are now being formulated and the preliminary debates will begin between now and April 15. The final debate among the winners of the preliminary contests will be held at the University some time in May.

"Resolved—That cities of Kentucky which have a population over 5,000 should adopt the city manager plan of government," is the subject the High Schools will discuss. The University Library is preparing package libraries of books, pamphlets, reports, magazine articles and newspaper clippings on this subject and these packages will be loaned for a period of two weeks to High Schools which are preparing debates. The Bureau of Debating and Public Discussion of the University, which will have charge of the debating contests, has grouped the High Schools of the State likely to participate in the contests into triangular groups, with Lexington, Louisville and Frankfort pitted against each other. Other groups, tentatively arranged, are as follows: Covington, Dayton and Newport; Dry Ridge, Walton and Independence; Owingsville, Mt. Sterling and Sharpesburg; Cynthiana, Winchester and Paris; Hopkinsville, Bowling Green and Central City; Henderson, Owensboro and Madisonville; Paducah, Mayfield and Fulton; Anchorage, Lagrange and Shelbyville; Danville, Nicholasville and Richmond; Maysville, Carlisle and Flemingsburg; Ashland, Cattellburg and Louisa.

It is very hard to reconcile the two points of view, but in one case, the war-worried people would be called upon to undergo a great privation and perhaps starvation because of our selfish interest.

In the second case, our farmers as a class would become bankrupted at the expense of the industry of the country. It is very evident that the people of Europe must be fed at any cost; that the farmers guarantee of $2.26 per bushel for wheat must be fulfilled, and that the cost of our basic food production must, through freedom of movement, reach a price as determined by supply and demand. These three needs can be met by the passing of the bill, which is before Congress at the present time, and which provides that the Government appropriate $1,250,000,000 and purchase at the guaranteed price of $2.26 per bushel at Chicago, the total wheat supply; that the surplus needed for Europe be sold at such a price as will be set by an International Grain Commission. Then after setting aside a "carry-over" supply for our needs, let further imports or exports be prohibited, and let the grain have a free market and thus acquire a real value. This would tend in some way to reduce the price of flour and wheat products to the consumer and thus to the extent that it is a vital factor in the cost of living, the cost of living would be reduced and consequently wages.

The difference between the guaranteed price by the Government and the real value of the wheat in the open market would result in a loss, but this loss could be made up out of the National Treasury through taxation on the public where it belongs rather than upon the farmer or the consumer. This would also not involve taking our total grain supply at the expense of the people of Europe where no wheat crop is available and where people are starving. In other words, by the taxation method, the loss would be more equally distributed and the greatest good would come to the greatest number not only here but in Europe.

WILL GROW FOR YEARS.

Fresh asparagus is one of the most delightful of all the extra early vegetables. It comes at a time when everyone is tired of a winter diet and because it comes from the same roots season after season, it should be a part of every farmer's garden. And because a good bed will remain in full bearing for a number of years, it will pay to do the work well.

The fullest and latest instructions for planting and handling of asparagus, both for the home table and the market, can be gotten in "Asparagus Circular No. 68." A post card or a letter to the College of Agriculture, at Lexington, will bring it at once.

WHEAT IS A VITAL PROBLEM.

After using up their own production of wheat up to August 1, 1919, the European countries, exclusive of Russia and Germany's Allies, will need 575,000,000 bushels. The estimated surplus stock of wheat in Argentina, Canada, Austria and the United States, which are the principal wheat producing countries, will be approximately 708,000,000 bushels. However, this seeming world surplus would be consumed in sixty days by the other peoples of Europe and Asia, who, as a result of the war, are underfed, and in many places today starving. Undoubtedly, if the United States Government were to put a ban on the exporting and importing of wheat, and if our own surplus of 267,000,000 were allowed a free market within our own boundaries, the price of wheat and of wheat flour would drop to or below its pre-war level, but this is economically unfair because the farmers would be bankrupt, who, on representation of the Government, have invested large amounts at high prices in seeds, labor and machinery for the purpose of stimulating and increasing production as far as possible. Also, wheat production would fall off, and the anticipated surplus would not become a real surplus.

On the other hand, in order to provide jobs for everyone, the war being over, it is necessary to have cheaper raw materials, greater production, and some people believe, a cost of living very much lower with the resultant decrease in the wage scales. Cheaper wheat would help to bring about this condition.

It is very hard to reconcile the two points of view, but in one case, the war-worried people would be called upon to undergo a great privation and perhaps starvation because of our selfish interest.

In the second case, our farmers as a class would become bankrupted at the expense of the industry of the country. It is very evident that the people of Europe must be fed at any cost; that the farmers guarantee of $2.26 per bushel for wheat must be fulfilled, and that the cost of our basic food production must, through freedom of movement, reach a price as determined by supply and demand. DIZZINESS IS ANNOYING

As Many Paris People Know Too Well.

When the kidneys are weak or disordered, they fall behind in filtering the blood of poisons. As these poisons attack the nerves, the result is felt in spells of vertigo, just as drunkenness will make a man dizzy from the poisoning of alcohol. Dizziness, headache, backache and irregularity of the kidney secretions are all signs of weak or disordered kidneys and should not be neglected. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the home-endorsed kidney remedy. Read this Paris resident's statement:

Mrs. J. W. Markland, 326 Eighth street, says: "Some few years ago I suffered severely with kidney complaint and some times was in a serious condition. I had a constant dull ache across the small of my back and I was terribly dizzy at times. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for this trouble and they have helped me more than anything else, always relieving me of the complaints."

PAY AND FILE INCOME TAX BEFORE MAR. 15

U. S. Internal Revenue Bureau
Gives Warning That Severe
Penalties Will Be Enforced.

WOMEN WITHIN LAW'S SCOPE; HOW THEY REPORT INCOME

The Income Tax drive comes to a close on Saturday night, March 15.

All payments and returns due on that date under the provisions of the new Revenue Law must be in the hands of local Internal Revenue Collectors before their offices close that night.

The Income Tax is being collected to meet the war expenses. Every person who shouted and tooted his horn on Armistice Day is now called upon to contribute his share of the cost of winning the war.

The laggards and the dodgers will face severe fines and jail sentences. The Internal Revenue Bureau announces that its officers will check us all up to see that every person who comes within the scope of the Income Tax law did his share.

Where to Pay and File.

Residents of Kentucky should make their returns and pay their taxes to the nearest of the following: Josh T. Griffith, Owensboro; J. Rogers Gore, Louisville; Charlton B. Thompson, Covington; Elwood Hamilton, Lexington; John W. Hughes, Danville.

Payments sent by mail should be attached to the returns and should be in the form of check, money order or draft. Cash payments by mail are sent at the taxpayer's risk of loss.

If you are unable to make your return personally because of illness, absence or incapacity an agent or legal representative may make your return.

If there are any doubtful points as to your items of income or allowable deductions you should get in touch at once with a Revenue officer or a banker for advice.

Women Pay Tax.

Women are subject to all the requirements of the Income Tax. Whether single or married, a woman's income from all sources must be considered.

If unmarried or if living apart from her husband she must make her return for 1918 if her net income was $1,000 or over.

If married and living with her husband her income must be considered with the husband's in determining the liability for a return. Their joint income, less the credits allowed by law, is subject to normal tax. The wife's net income is considered separately in computing any surtax that may be due. Husband and wife file jointly, as a rule. If the husband does not include his wife's income in his return the wife must file a separate return.

Severe Penalties.

The new Revenue Law places severe penalties on a person who fails to make return on time, refuses to make return or renders a fraudulent return. For failure to make return and pay tax on time a fine of not more than $1,000 is named and 25 per cent of the tax due is added to the assessment. For refusing wilfully to make return or for making a false or fraudulent return there is a fine of not exceeding $10,000 and imprisonment of not exceeding one year, or both.

Farmers' Income Taxable.

Every farmer and ranchman who had a fair or a good year in 1918 must heed the Income Tax this year. He must consider all his income as taxable. He is entitled to deduct from his gross income all amounts expended in carrying on his farm. The cost of farm machinery, farm buildings and improvements cannot be deducted. The cost of live stock, either for resale or for breeding purposes, is also regarded as investment.

Overtime and Bonuses Taxed.

Salary and wage earners must consider as taxable every item received from employers and from other sources. Bonuses and overtime pay are to be reported as well as the regular payments.

Allowances for Losses.

Losses sustained in 1918 and not covered by insurance are deductible items if incurred in the taxpayer's business or trade, in any transaction undertaken for profit or arising from fire, storm, shipwreck or other casualty or from theft.

MILLERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Dailey were in Cincinnati from Friday until Monday.

Mr. E. T. Beeding arrived Friday from Jacksonville, Fla., and will make his future home in Millersburg. He is one of our old citizens and we are glad to welcome his return.

A memorial service was held at Methodist church, Sunday evening for the purpose of augmenting the county memorial fund. The principal address of the evening was delivered by Mr. O'Hara, who spoke at Paris in the afternoon.

Rev. Van Winkle entered on his charge as pastor of the Christian church Sunday. His family and household goods will arrive from Vanceburg in a few days. They will occupy the Christian parsonage on Trigg avenue.

Amity Lodge No. 40, F. & A. M., will entertain Friday evening in compliment of the five young men on their service flag, who have been in camp and doing service on the battle front in France, four of whom have been released from service.

Mr. J. H. Miller has resigned his position as civil engineer under the U. S. Government on the Mississippi River, and has accepted another with a private concern at Oklahoma City, Okla. He will enter on his duties March 17. Mrs. Miller will arrive in few days for a two-weeks visit to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Dailey.

The following families have changed homes and will change during the coming week: Mr. Dennis McMahan and family have moved to the property of Mr. William Wood, vacated by Mr. James Buckler and family, from his property recently sold on South Main Street; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ralls from their home sold to Mr. Harry Fay, in Butler Addition to the property of Mr. J. V. Ingels, on Main street; Mr. Harry Fay and family, to his property purchased from and vacated by Mr. J. O. Ralls, from his home on Trigg avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farris, to the property recently purchased from Mr. C. C. Chancellor, vacated by himself and family, from that of Roy Endicott; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Farris, to the property of Roy Endicott, vacated by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farris, from that of Mrs. Sue B. Sandusky; Mr. Ben Spence and family, to the property of Mrs. Sue Sandusky, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Farris, from Ewing; Mr. J. C. Cumber and family, from rooms in Ingels Flat to a part of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mitchell, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Mastin.

The Farmers' Bank of Millersburg shows perhaps the most rapid growth of any bank in the State of Kentucky for its capacity and surroundings, this, too, in view of the fact that Millersburg is not a county seat, and that the institution is simply a banking institution and not connected with a trust company, working, as it does, on a small capital stock. In 1914 this institution had a deposit of $150,000 in round numbers; in 1915, $550,000; March 1, 1919, $1,054,000. The business of this bank is confined to a small territory, situated as our little city is, between county seats, Cynthiana being the farthest removed from us by a distance of twelve miles, while Paris and Carlisle are only eight miles each. The Farmers' Bank was organized in the early nineties with Mr. Robert Tarr as President, and J. G. Allen as Cashier. From that time its business began to grow. When Mr. Allen took charge of the institution, pulling it from the debris of the Millersburg Deposit Bank, it was in a chaotic condition. Through the good business management of Mr.

Allen, the institution was soon put on a firm basis. After the death of Mr. Robert Tarr, some ten years ago, Mr. Allen succeeded him as President, which position he held until July, 1916. Mr. Allen has seen the bank grow from an exceedingly small bank to one of the solid financial institutions. In July, 1916, after the death of Mr. Allen, Mr. W. D. McIntrye was made President. Mr. S. M. Allen continued as Cashier, which position he had held since his father had assumed the presidency of the bank. Mr. Allen is a young man, a live wire, wide awake and full of push, pluck, energy and ability. With these two young men at the head of the institution it began to make rapid strides and through their business energies and prosperities of the times leaving nothing undone on their part to make the bank a pronounced success.

DEATHS.

MCKEE.

Information has been received in this city by relatives announcing the death in Denver, Colorado, recently of Mrs. Mary McKee, formerly Miss Mary Wright. Mrs. McKee died in Denver, last Saturday night after a short illness.

Mrs. McKee was the daughter of Mr. Ben Wright, of Sharpsburg, and a great-niece of Mrs. W. H. Fisher of Paris. She went to Denver with her husband and her mother, for the benefit of Mr. McKee's health, and in the hopes that a change of climate would be of benefit to him. The news of her death came as a great surprise to her many friends and relatives in this city.

KIRKPATRICK.

Geo. Lewis Kirkpatrick died at his home in Mt. Sterling, Saturday, after an illness of three years from paralysis. Mr. Kirkpatrick was for years a prominent tobacco grower and buyer. He was considered by many the best judge of tobacco in Kentucky. So keen was his judgment that the Liggett & Myers Company never placed any limit upon his buying. He served one term as County Clerk of Montgomery county and regularly attended Republican State and National conventions. He was a man of high degree. His estate is estimated between $100,000 and $200,000. Two children, Charles W. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Charles Lindsey, both of Mt. Sterling, survive. He was a brother of M. L. Kirkpatrick, of Cincinnati.

MANN.

The funeral of Mrs. Martha J. Mann, aged seventy-three, who died at her home in the Pinecrest Apartments, in this city, Friday morning, following a long illness, was conducted at the family home at one o'clock, Saturday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Kidwell, assisted by Rev. G. R. Combs, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The interment followed on the family lot in the Carlisle Cemetery. Mrs. Mann's six sons acted as pall-bearers at both the funeral and burial.

Mrs. Mann was the wife of Mr. H. C. Mann. She was a native of Nicholas county, from where she moved with Mr. Mann and her family to Paris some years ago. She was a devoted member of the Methodist church, and took a deep interest in all the affairs of the church. By her kind and considerate treatment of others she greatly endeared herself to all, and her home life was all a testimonial to her excellent Christian character. She was loved and esteemed by all who knew her, and her passing away is a source of deep re-
